FOREWORD

As the rising sun is but a pramise af a glorious day ahead, so our school days, rich in experience and attainment, are the assurance of the golden future to come.

In organizing and printing this "TWIG," it has been difficult to bring under one cover all of the experiences and interests of a full school year.

If, for the present and impending years, this yearbook can set forth, in spirit at least, the achievements of School Life and Happiness found in achieving, our efforts will have been justified.

The Annual Staff

Mrs. Fowler.

As we leave dear "Ol Fair Grove High," I will cherish memories of you, my English Teacher, and all of the parties we enjoyed. May your day be a little lighter and your heart a little brighter as we leave because we know you did your very best. Words cannot express my gratitude for your loving kindness for us. Here's saying "Thank You", you were wonderful.

Love always Lowell Travis

The opportunity awaiting the students of Foir Grove is greoter thon ony in my memory. The need is the greatest, the problems the most difficult, the hazords the most numerous and the demand for intelligence, skill, fortitude, judgment ond sacrifice is unequoled. May I beg each of you to keep your hopes high, the desire to achieve dominant, and above oll, to prepare for a life of usefullness. Those of you who rise to the demonds of the present time will become benefactors of all generations to come.

I want you to know that I really have enjoyed this year more than any of the other class. not because of the wonderful trips we shared but because of the wonderful leadership and the wonderful personality that you have. you may think that this is a lot of baloney but I really have grown fond of you and I really like you and all your class. I think you have a nice husband too. I hope that I haven't been too much trouble for you because I know I could have been better. I think of your and your help that I will probably need next. I shall never forget you. always
Richard Seibert

Mrs. Fowler
I think you are one of the best teachers I have ever had. Our play could not have had better leadership. I enjoyed being in your class. You have met a lot of us and will never forget.
Your Pal
Donald Poole

Mrs. Fowler,
you will never know how much I appreciate all that you've done for me in the past years. I can truthfully that I have never had a teacher as I do you. from the bottom of my heart, I love you. I never forget "3 up - 1 up" and our trip to Washington. I'm sure we won't. I know I never will. I'll never forget this year and all the good times we've had only wish we could have a million more. I hope that all the success in the world comes to you. You are a sweet, kind, and just wonderful person and I really think a lot of you. May happiness always come your way.
Lovingly,
Betty Kay

Mrs. Fowler,
I won't try to express my appreciation for all your kind deeds for me because it is impossible to do so. your help in almost everything I have done has really got me over the hump. I have enjoyed the past two years more than any part of my life. of all the years to take last year for a teacher the last two were the best I've ever had. I shall never forget you.

CLASS HISTORY

The school year of 1950-51 was an exciting one for a large group of about seventy swashbuckling freshmen. Mr. Bill Garrison and Mrs. Kenneth Murphy were the brave ones who survived our mischief and "many" wiener roasts. It was during this year that Carolyn Head chose married life to that of attending to school. With the loss of one, we received two new students, Charles Surratt from Colonial Drive and Delores Clinard from Colfax.

Mr. John Cox was ready for us in September of 1951. He calmed us quickly and let us know that we were no longer children but men and women, and that the time had come to act likewise. Many of our classmen were first stringers for basketball and baseball. In the spring of this school year we started preparations for a football squad. Several boys from our class were stars in our first football team. Our main highlight for this year was Biology. Most everyone enjoyed disecting Mr. Earthworm. At the end of this term Winnie Underwood and Sylvia Creasy decided to take a course at summer school and graduated ahead of us with the class of '53.

Becoming Juniors was a "big" event with class rings and the Junior-Senior Banquet as well as other highlights. Our "gypsy" style banquet was a great success with the guidance of Mrs. Ruth Ross. Our homeroom teacher, Mrs. Clarence Fowler, directed us in four one-act plays which were given in the cold icy gym due to the lack of an auditorium. All of our chapel programs were held in the gym during the building project. Again we lost and gained students. Imogene Myers indulged in matrimony, Frances Wright moved to the Thomasville High district, and Charles Stewart came to us from Thomasville High. Perhaps our joyous class parties topped the bill for our Junior year.

The first day of school in 1953 found us back with Mrs. Fowler and the slight vision of Washington, D. C., before us. By this concluding year our enrollment had decreased to thirty-one. Peggy Jones of our class was chosen Football Queen by popular vote of the student body. Also during this year Donald Poole and Joyce Fouts were crowned annual Halloween King and Queen. We chose a folk play for our Senior play and the proceeds from this performance go to our Washington trip. We also sold Christmas cards and hose to build up our treasury. By early spring we hope to succeed in achieving our long-awaited trip.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

To our principal, we, the Senior Class, leave gratitude from the depths of our heorts for all the efforts you put forth to make our career at FGHS a profitable one.

II

To the faculty, we leave the underclassmen in your capable hands, your constant struggles, that you may spur them on to assume the essential basis for a good education.

III

To the Class of '55:

1. Bobby Suggs wills his love for stock car races to Frances Snyder.
2. Charles Surrott wills his ability to learn Macbeth to Sherrill Floyd.
3. Mary Floyd wills her ability to get a boy friend to Tinia Ember.
4. Doris Carpenter wills her shorthand book to Arlene Hill.
5. Helen Swaney wills her block hair to Patricio Snider.
6. Betty Freedle wills her obility to skip classes to Maxine Horris.
7. Loretta Dorsett wills her obility to do the Chorleston to Dorothy Hicks.
8. Richord Sechrist wills his love for sports to Jimmy Cline.
9. Donald Poole wills his ability to make excuses to Jimmy Newsom.
10. Marlene Suggs wills her ability to get along with people to Normo Albright, who really doesn't need it.
11. And I, Doris Smith, will my chair on the front row to Fonda Embler.

IV

To the Class of '56:

We leave the encouragement and the hopes that you will attain your gool with success.

V

To the Class of '57:

We bequeath our fondest hopes and extra strength that your three years in high school will be the best ever.

CLASS PROPHECY

Hi Peanut,

I ran across Helen Swaney, you remember her, the little black-haired girl with baunds of energy? I saw her at the Air Port where I was buying tickets to Hawaii—I've just finished ECTC and have a chance ta teach down there—well ta get ta the point—I saw Helen at the Air Port and she's a Stewardess for Pan Americon Airlines. She meets the most amazing people. She told me that she had seen in person that great comedy team—Suggs and Floyd. You remember Mary Lewis and Bobby, don't you? It seems they went to Hollywood and became a howling success.

While I was at the Air Port, Richard Sechrist came in to buy a ticket for Florida. He says he's coming down to help your huge "Athletes Haven" you're running. By the way—congratulations! I never see any of the old class of '54, but gosh, do I hear about them.

Have you heard about Marlene Suggs and Jeanene Rothrock being in Africa doing great religious work with the natives?

Oh yes! and that Margaret Pierce—she always was a great one for dramatics—well she's an elegant Braadway star now.

Is it true that you have the great coaches, Jerry Doby and Donald Poale helping you down there? Haw did you ever manage ta get them?

And did you know that Joann Elliatt besides keeping house for Dannie and the two boys is managing all of Leach's Cafes?

The last time I saw Betty Freedle, she was a little ole' nurses' aide at the Thomasville Hospital but now—I read in Life magazine she is in demand at every hospital in the United States.

Peggy Segers is living a nice quiet life in the little town of Segersville—they named it after her when she wrote that great book af hers.

And, by the way, I read in the paper the other day that Albert Parrish received some kind of award far his safe driving at Johnson Motor Lines.

And do yau remember haw Sherrill Morris always had so much to say in class? I read yesterday that he's ane of the few great men trying ta keep the fillibuster in action. I hope he succeeds.

When you wrote and asked me to send news of all our old classmates from Fair Grave High School I didn't realize there were so many.

Doris Carpenter is assistant to her father now and they're managing o chain of Drive-In Trheatres from coast to coast.

Oh! and I almost forgot to mentian Loretta Dorsett Wall had twins the other day and they're the cutest little fellows I've ever seen.

Talk about Stock Car Drivers and yau've never seen the beat of Charles Stewart and Leon Dennis. Man, yau've never seen driving until yau see them. They're heck on wheels.

Remember when Max Hughes's father gove him that Chevrolet—it seems he liked them so well he's started buying and selling them. He's really working up a neat business.

Have you ever heard of a school for cheerleaders? Well, Delores Clinard sure did start one. She was Chief Cheerleader at Fair Grove and at college too. She's got a lot to teach them.

Jerry Stiles had such a good speaking voice at school, and it sems we weren't the only ones who realized it. I guess yau read that he was chosen one of the ten best orators in the stote of New York.

And that Bill Nifong, What do yau think of his teaching the Great Charlie Justice's children how to play football. Looks like you'll have ta include him in your All-Stars.

Doris Smith has started a Private School for Girls, but I reckon you've heard about the famous Smith Schaal far Girls.

Einstein got himself a great assistant when Edword Hicks helped him prove how many atoms are in a breath of air—or something like that.

Someone sent Joyce Fout's picture into the studios at Merto-Golden-Mayer and they liked the looks of it so much they sent her a contract for life.

And you remember Marie "Gabby" Anderson. She's taken Judy Canova's place on radio and T. V. and she really is swell.

You've probably heard of Young's Construction Company and the head man is none other than Willie Joe Young.

And have you heard of the elaborate horse ranch that Betty Lou Leonard is running in Texas?

Now, let me see I think that's everybady. Write and let me know if you know any news of our classmates of '54.

You and Richard be sure and produce a bunch of All Stars at that Athlete's Haven of yours.

Just Write to Me in Hawaii— Bye now,

Mrs. Fowler,

There is not enough space in this book to express my love for you. All through my high school days you have been my favorite. You deserve the dedication. May all your dreams come true in the near future. I'll never forget you as long as I live.

Love you truly,
Shelby Jean Hunt

Mrs. Fowler, It's time for our class to be graduating. I have really enjoyed being in your room both junior and Senior years. I have really learned to love you this year. It seemed as if I couldn't be satisfied with what I did for you at the play. I wish I could have done more and more. I hope I haven't been too much trouble this years. Mrs. Fowler, you have a very nice family. I hope someday that Wayne and I will have a happy home like yours. I am glad you went to Washington with us. you and your family made our trip a happy, successful trip. I am glad you came to our room and took a shower, especially talking to us till late at night. It was more fun. Lots of luck to a well deserving teacher and friend. May the good Lord bless and keep you while you are teaching school (and meeting more friends), this year.

Love always,
Doris Clinard

Mrs. Fowler.

I hardly know how to say what I feel in my heart but I have enjoyed being in your class so much that I really hate to graduate. You have been more than a school teacher to me. You have also been a guide, leading me in my home and social life. I have learned to love you in these few years and will never forget you.

Love always,
Betty Trudt

Mrs. Fowler.

If I was a poet or writer, I might could find a few words to express a little of what I would like to say. Since I am neither, I will just say "Thank A Million." I know Luck will be in your favor always!!

Loving you always.
Pat Spivey

The members of the Yearbook Staff wish to take this space to thank R. A. Hunter, Jr. for the help and advice given during the publication of the TWIG for '54. It is always gratifying to work with a company which so completely meets all contract requirements and also extends personal courtesy to its customers.

Mrs. Fowler,

I have enjoyed having you for my teacher these four years, you are one of the swellest teachers I have ever had. and you are the sweetest, Mrs. Fowler. I can't tell you how much you had help me throu these four years. but I will never forget you as long as I live. I have enjoyed being in you room. But don't forget the good times we habe had in the class, and I hope you have success in your future life. This is from the bottom of my heart.

Lots of "Love"

Mrs. Fowler, It's about graduation time —
the time when I will have to say good-bye to you. I want you to know that you are the best teacher that I every had. The good times
I have had with you and my classmates will always remain in my memory. You are such a sweet person and now I can understand why your students never forget you. Even though I am saying good-bye to you I don't forget August 18, when we will all see each other at our class reunion. May you live all the happiness and success life has to offer you.
(Don't forget - Sun Up; I never will.)

Love Always,
Helen Swaney

Mrs Fowler Im just a plain little old junior and next year Ill be a little old Senior
But in the way I rate my teachers
Mrs Fowler you are the best.
Love ya fur ever and ever
Verna Albright

Everyone else has written a page, but I won't. I'll save you the trouble of reading mine. I want to say that I certainly have enjoyed being in your classes these past years. I want to thank you for the help you have given me. It is my wish that you will always have the best of everything - you deserve it!

Love,
Janda Fowler

Mrs. Fowler,

Well, it's just about graduation and it will soon be time for me to say good-bye to you, but I will always remember you as the best teacher I have ever had. Really, you are a wonderful person as well as teacher. You have been so much fun as well as a good serious teacher. I was so happy, Mrs. Fowler, when you joined my church. I had always felt very close to you, but now I felt that you were more a part of my religious work and activities. Mrs. Fowler, you were such a wonderful director in the Senior play. I enjoyed every minute of it. I have always felt I could tell you my secrets and also my troubles and you would understand. You have too. As for your future, Mrs. Fowler I'm wishing you the "best". I will always love you Mrs. Fowler.

Love,

Mrs. Fowler,

I could never tell you how much I have enjoyed being in your classes. I only wished I had four more years to come to school. You have been so much help not only to me, but to all the students at Fair Grove. The Twig couldn't have been dedicated to a more deserving person. I am looking foward to being in your home room next year.

I wish you all the luck and happiness in the world.

Love,
Tina Embler

Mrs. Fowler,

I have truly enjoyed being in your classes and am looking fawood to my next year in your room, You have really been a good friend to me ad i'll remember you after my school days are ower. Sincerly yours
Bobby Harris

Mrs. Fowler,

I am going to miss you after graduating from school. I certainly have appreciated all the things you have done for me. You are always ready and willing to help anyone that ask you for help. I certainly have enjoyed my trip to Washington with you and Mrs. Fowler and Woody. Mrs. Fowler I wish you the "best" because you deserve it.

Love
Doris Carpenter
